

MAUI BLUE BOOK

TERRITORIAL OFFICIALS
Hon. A. N. Kopoika, Circuit Judge,	Wailuku
Edmund H. Hart, Clerk Circuit Court,	Wailuku
Judge W. A. McKay Dist. Magistrate,	Wailuku
J. K. Kono,	Honolulu
Chas. Copp,	Makawao
Kunukani,	Honolulu
J. Kaima,	Hana
Pitman,	Kipahulu
McCorriston,	Molokai
Kahoonalana,	Lanai
W. T. Robinson, Tax Assessor,	Wailuku
J. N. K. Keola, Deputy Assessor,	Wailuku
A. F. Tavares,	Paia
G. Dunn,	Lahaina
M. H. Reuter,	Hana
COUNTY OFFICIALS
Wm. Henning, Supervisor, Chairman,	Lahaina
W. H. Cornwell,	Wailuku
T. M. Church,	Makawao
J. H. Hahalaui,	Hana
T. T. Meyers,	Molokai
D. H. Case,	County Attorney
L. M. Baldwin,	Auditor
Chas. Wilcox,	Clerk
W. F. Kane,	Wailuku
Wm. Saffery,	Sheriff
Edw. Rogers,	Sheriff's Clerk
T. Clark,	Deputy Sheriff
C. R. Lindsay,	Wailuku
Edgar Morton,	Lahaina
F. Wittrock,	Makawao
J. H. Mahoe,	Hana
	Molokai

LOCALS

Maui delegates to the Home Rule convention did not seem to accomplish much.

Five cents per pound will be paid for clean linen rags at the MAUI NEWS Office.

Old newspapers at 25 cts. per hundred suitable for pantry shelving, for sale at the MAUI NEWS Office.

The directors of the Maui Wine and Liquor Co., Ltd., have declared a dividend of one percent per month for the last quarter.

For the week commencing October 9th, Dr. George S. Aiken will be at the Custom House Kahului and the latter part at Puunene Club House.

Chas. Notley, the defeated home rule candidate for delegate to Washington is now in control of the Home Rule party, succeeding Kalauokalani Sr.

Golden Gate flour makes delicious bread, cake and pastry. It has been the standard of excellence for over a quarter of a century. Hackfeld & Co., wholesale distributors.

Smokers of Owl cigars are warned against the fraud of substitution. See that the name "Owl" is stamped on every wrapper. Gunst-Eakin Cigar Co. are agents.

Joe Decker, the little lightweight puglist, has been sent to the insane asylum for treatment. It is believed that he was mentally injured in some of his fights.—Independent.

James D. Dougherty, representing H. F. Wichman and Co. Jewelers, is making a tour of Maui and placing orders for holiday goods, watches, diamonds and souvenir jewelry.

The Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Co., give notice in this issue that all licenses for shooting heretofore granted are revoked, and all persons are strictly forbidden to enter the lands for this purpose without written permission.

Exceeded the Estimate.

The Haiku Fruit and Packing Co shipped 1,055 cases of canned pine apple by the last SS "Nevadan" and have 1,400 cs. yet to ship besides supplying the local demand which may reach 200 cs. for the Maui trade alone, being handled principally by the Kahului Store as wholesalers and retailers. This company also expects to put up a winter pack of 2,000 dozen cans, and ship besides 10,000 or more fruit to the Coast during the winter months and early spring. The estimated pack of the season just closed has been exceeded, and the factory though hard pushed at times has run very smoothly. It is estimated that the pack for next summer will reach 10,000 cases.

Seriously Fractured.

Captain Harry Copp of the Wailuku Police force, who has been confined to his home in Makawao with a bad foot caused by stepping on one of the many spring boards of Wailuku's notoriously bad side walks was taken to Puunene Hospital last Saturday, where upon examination, it was found the foot was seriously fractured.

Captain Copp will be forced to remain "off duty" at the Hospital for some time before he can again assume his office as Captain of Wailuku's model police.

Registered at Maui Hotel.

Captain and Mrs. Armstrong, ship Dunsuir A. Alberg Lahaina; Mr. and Mrs. Donald McIntyre, Mrs. F. M. Swain, C. T. Wilder and wife, James Dougherty Honolulu; Mr. and Mrs. George Gibb, Olowalu.

LAHAINA LINES.

The Waiholo family gave a luau last Sunday.

A native, 91 years of age, died at Olowalu on Monday.

Mrs. McIntyre has returned from Olowalu to Honolulu.

Mrs. Crozier has fully recovered from a recent operation.

Mrs. Simpson was entertained at Lahainaluna last Sunday.

Mr. Frederick H. Hayselden has returned to Kau, Hawaii.

Manger Barckhausen will probably arrive very soon from his European trip.

About the time of the next full moon, a Lahaina party will visit the summit of Haleakala.

A number of articles have been stolen recently, in the neighborhood of the Lahaina school.

Dr. Davidson has recovered from an ophthalmic trouble, and is attending to his patients as usual.

The September number of "Hawaii's Young People," published at Lahainaluna, contains interesting particulars concerning Captain James Cook, King Arthur, Marco Polo, Benjamin West, the Swiss Family Robinson, patriotic and poetical selections, Bible stories, and miscellaneous entertaining matter.

PERSONAL MENTION

Professor Alexander is visiting on Maui.

Miss Muser was a passenger to Honolulu Wednesday.

Miss Joy Richardson is teaching school temporarily at Kaanapali.

Attorney J. M. Vivas was a passenger to Honolulu by Wednesday's ferry.

Mrs. G. B. Robertson left by the S. S. Maui for her future home on Oahu.

John Nelson of the Maui Soda Works expect to make a short trip to Honolulu the coming week.

J. H. Mackenzie of the Hnery Waterhouse Trust Co. is on Maui looking after their varied interests.

Harold T. Hayselden representing Levi Strauss and Co. of San Francisco is drumming up business for his firm on the valley island.

Max Eckart, who has been on a visit to his brother and sister in Germany, is expected back next week.

Optician S. E. Lucas and family returned to Honolulu by the Kinau last evening.

Professor Alexander and wife who has been visiting on Maui returned to Honolulu by the S. S. Maui Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Wilder were County Seat visitor Wednesday from Lahaina. They registered at the Maui Hotel.

C. S. Holloway, superintendent of Public Works on July 18th, appointed J. W. L. Marshall poundmaster of the government pound at Kahakuloa.

H. C. Halvorsen, gives notice that all accounts contracted with the Bismark Stables, Lahaina prior to September 1st, and remaining unsettled should be paid to him.

Mr. E. A. Wilson, bookkeeper of Hamakua, expects to leave early next month for a two or probably three months trip to the mainland.

Mrs. C. Waldeyer and child were passengers to Honolulu by last week's steamer enroute to the coast. Mrs. Waldeyer will make a visit to Dr. Waldeyer, brother to Carl Waldeyer.

James Scott, Mrs. Scott and children, of Honolulu, and J. D. Sullivan, of Vancouver, were at the Victoria hotel yesterday. They have gone on an extended hunting tour through the Olympic mountains, their object being to secure some of the big game which is known to frequent those regions. Both Mr. and Mrs. Scott are enthusiastic disciples of Nimrod, the latter being a crack shot and possessing considerable experience in tracking game. Upon their return from the American side they intend visiting the interior and north end of Vancouver Island.—Victoria (B. C.) Times.

Ordination at Paia.

At the adjourned meeting of the Maui Evangelical Association held at Paia Native Church last Sunday, Rev. D. N. Oponui of Huelo, and Rev. David Murry of Kaupo were ordained to the ministry. Rev. O. P. Emerson offered the ordaining prayer. Rev. O. Nawahine preached the sermon, Rev. V. Bazata of the Makawao Foreign Church extended the right hand of fellowship and Rev. Rowland B. Dodge of the Union Church at Wailuku gave the charge to the pastors. Other parts in the service were taken by Revs. J. K. Hihio, I. D. Iaea and D. N. Oponui.

UP COUNTRY NOTES.

A Japanese employed in Puunene Mill, fell from the top of one of the evaporators last Friday, sustaining injuries which are not thought to be serious.

Miss Belle Dickey invited a number of her friends to a tennis party at Haiku last Saturday afternoon. After tennis a very pleasant evening was spent playing progressive Five Hundred.

James Ogg passed through Kahului on his way to Hana last Saturday where he has accepted the position of engineer for the plantation.

Wm. Walsh and family have been spending the past two weeks at Makawao.

Wild ducks are beginning to make their appearance in the Kahului Ponds and local hunters anticipate some good sport this season.

The Paia extension of the Kahului Railroad is about half completed and the management expect to have it finished by the beginning of the sugar season.

The last match of men's singles tennis tournament was played Monday between Wm. McGerrow the winner of class B singles and Geo. Henderson the winner of class A. The match was to be the best three out of five sets, allowing a handicap. The whole five sets were played, Mr. Henderson coming out winner of the fifth set and also of the tournament. The winner receives a tennis racket as a prize.

Supt. R. W. Filler celebrated his birthday Wednesday evening by inviting a number of his Kahului friends to his home. It was quite late in the evening before many of his guests knew of its being his birthday. The evening was very pleasantly spent in dancing on the large lanai. Several good musical selections were rendered by James Dougherty, Mr. Muller and others.

Mr. J. N. S. Williams left Wednesday for a short business trip to Honolulu.

Mr. Geo. Wilbur gives a house party at his home in Kailua this evening. Special trains will be run from Hamakua.

The Makawao Tennis Club are holding a tournament at the Sunny side grounds every Saturday afternoon consisting of ladies singles. The tournament is for the purpose of classifying the players. The club consists principally of ladies many of whom are very good players, so some close games may be expected.

The two prize cups to be given the winners of the tennis tournament Aug. 12th were received Monday and will be placed in the hands of the trustee Mr. H. P. Baldwin. The cups will be presented to the winners, Mr. Bazata and Mr. Krumbhaar as soon as convenient.

Wednesday evening a drawing took place of the members of the Puunene Athletic Association for partners in a mens doubles tournament. The drawing resulted as follows:—

CLASS A.

Wescoat - Ault, Smith - Lougher; Thomson-Henderson, Nickelsen-Williams.

CLASS B.

A. F. Voss-G. L. Keeney, Vasconcellos-Fanton; Shoemaker-W. P. L. Bett, Campbell-Daniels; Walsh-Medeiros, McGerrow-A. C. Betts.

The Puunene Mill finished drying low grade products Saturday and will not start up again until about the 1st of Dec. Quite a force of men are at work making repairs on the mills and machinery.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. McConkey by the neighbors, last Monday evening. The sight of fifty candles upon a Birthday Cake aroused a question in a number of the guests' minds.

Rev. O. P. Emerson left Wednesday on the Maui for Honolulu. On Oct. 11th he will sail on the Alameda for the mainland. After spending a few days at the coast he will go East to meet his wife who is in Massachusetts. Mr. Emerson for the last two years has been the missionary among the Hawaiian Churches of Maui, Lanai and Molokai. He expects to be away at least eight months for an extended vacation.

This week we are selling

SOAP

TOILET SOAPS

Colgate's Cashmere Bouquet
Colgate's Glycerine
Colgate's Oatmeal
Colgate's Honey
Mullen's & Kropff (Imported)
La Cathedral di Cologne
White Rose Glycerine
Armour's
Roger & Gullet white Lilac (Imported)

KITCHEN SOAPS

Castile White (Imported)
Ivory
Seafoam Borax
Cudahy's white ash
Nonpareil

AND

Pearline
Washing Ammonia in bottles
Sapolio
Bath Brick
Kahului Favorite
Palace Kitchen Soap

After you have cleaned house use

Kinloch Paint

Ready to mix
but not ready mixed

We keep it in gallon cans, all colors;
you can buy one can or 1000 as you need them.

KAHULUI STORE.

The Emporium of the Pacific.